USACM LIQUIDATING
TRUST'S EX PARTE MOTION
FOR ORDER SHORTENING
TIME TO HEAR USACM
LIQUIDATING TRUST'S
MOTION TO COMPEL
PRODUCTION OF
DOCUMENTS BY WELLS
FARGO

Hearing Date: OST REQUESTED
for February 21, 2008

Hearing Time: OST REQUESTED for 9:30 a.m.

The USACM Liquidating Trust (the "Trust") hereby files this Ex Parte Motion for Order Shortening Time to Hear USACM Liquidating Trust's Motion to Compel Production of Documents By Wells Fargo and in support thereof, respectfully states as following:

1 1. On February 5, 2008, the Trust has filed its Motion to Compel Production of
2 Documents by Wells Fargo (the "Motion") (Docket No. 5782). The Motion is based on Wells
3 Fargo's failure to produce all documents responsive to the Rule 2004 Subpoena for examination
4 and production of documents (the "Subpoena") that the Trust served on Wells Fargo's on March 5 13, 2007.

7 2. Over the course of many months following the service of the Subpoena, Wells
8 Fargo asked for numerous extensions and otherwise delayed the production while promising to 9 cooperate and produce the documents. After producing only a fraction of the documents
10 requested in the Subpoena, the Bank stopped the production at all.

11 3. The Trust now faces the deadline of April 14, 2008 – the date the statute of 12 limitations for avoidance actions under 11 U.S.C. § 546 expires – without many key documents
13 that Wells Fargo promised but has not produced.

15 4. As set forth more fully in the Motion, the documents requested in the Subpoena, 16 include emails and correspondence that Wells Fargo's employees maintained with USACM and 17 its related entities, as well as documents related to wires and ACH transfers. These documents, 18 crucial to the Trust's analysis of its potential avoidance claims, and might take several weeks to 19 collect.

21 5. On February 21, 2008, there is an omnibus hearing setting in front of this Court at 22 9:30 a.m.

23 6. In light of the facts described above, The Trust seeks an order from the Court
24 shortening time to hear the Motion on February 21, 2008 at 9:30 a.m.

25 2. Wells Fargo will not be prejudiced by the relief requested herein because by its 26 response to the Trust's Motion is due on February 20, 2008 – a day before the hearing. Thus,

1 holding the hearing on February 21, 2007 will not shorten in any way the time that Wells Fargo
2 has to respond to this Motion and brief the Court on relevant issues.

3 3. The Court can shorten notice pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure
4 9006(c)(1) and Bankruptcy Local Rule 9006(a).

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts (c) & (d) made applicable in cases under the Bankruptcy Code by Rule 9016, Fed.R.Bankr.P.:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2)(A). A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order by the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any persons who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3)(A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance.

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held or,

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

EXHIBIT A

The topics of examination under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 shall include:

- (1) Your policies, if any, regarding document destruction and retention, and how those policies were applied to the documents requested in EXHIBIT B (the "documents");
- (2) How and where the documents are kept and filed;
- (3) Whether the documents are kept in the ordinary and usual course of business;
- (4) How the documents came to be created, including the identities (specifically or by category) of the persons creating them;
- (5) Whether the persons creating the documents had personal knowledge of the matters stated in the documents, or created from them information transmitted by someone with such knowledge;
- (6) Whether it was regular practice to create the documents (or keep a file of the documents, if created by others);
- (7) The efforts made to locate and produce the documents;
- (8) The identities of all persons assisting with the search for responsive documents;
- (9) Whether any responsive documents were withheld on any ground;
- (10) Whether any responsive documents have been destroyed, and if so, when and for what reason or pursuant to what policy or instruction;
- (11) Whether any documents that should have been found were missing, and if so, the reasons that the documents were missing; and
- (12) Whether any of the instructions provided in EXHIBIT B were not followed, and if so, which instructions were not followed and the reasons for any and all departures from the instructions.

2. If any document requested herein has been lost, discarded, or destroyed, the document so lost, discarded or destroyed should be identified as completely as possible, including without limitation, the date the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the manner in which the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the reason(s) the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the person who authorized that the document be destroyed or discarded, and the person who lost, discarded, or destroyed the document.

3. If you cannot produce a document because it no longer exists or is no longer in your possession, custody, or control, please identify that document by: (a) its title; (b) its nature (for example, a "letter" or "e-mail"); (c) the date it was created or sent; (d) its author(s) and signator(y/ies); (e) any of its recipient(s); (f) the last place it was known to have been located; (g) the circumstances under which it ceased to exist or passed from your possession, custody, or control; and (h) the identity and last known responsive; (j) the nature of the privilege(s) asserted as to the document; and (k) a detailed, specific explanation as to why the document is privileged or otherwise immune from discovery, including a presentation of all factual grounds and legal analyses.

7. If any requested document cannot be produced in full, produce it to the extent possible, indicating what is being withheld and the reason it is being withheld.

9. Identify each document produced by the paragraph number of this schedule to which it is responsive. If a document is produced in response to more than one request, it is sufficient to identify only the first request to which the document is responsive.

10. All electronically stored information must be produced in the same form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained. Specifically, all electronically stored information must be produced in its native format, so that the metadata can be accessed.

11. Unless otherwise specified, the relevant time period for this request is from January 1, 1997 through and including the present.

Re: In re USA Commercial Mortgage Company, Case No. BK-S-06-10725-LBR, pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nevada

Dear Ms. Chow:

My firm is special litigation counsel to the USACM Liquidating Trust ("Trust") in the above-referenced matter. The Trust recently served a Rule 2004 subpoena (the "Subpoena") upon you, seeking a production of certain documents and an examination of a designated corporate representative.

Please be advised that the Trust will not enforce those document requests in Exhibit "B" to the Subpoena that are unrelated to the Debtors (as that term is defined therein), USA Investment Partners, LLC ("USAIP"), and those entities in which USAIP or USA Commercial Mortgage Company ("USACM") is the managing or majority member. Such requests are hereby withdrawn. The Trust, however, expressly reserves the right to make the same or similar requests in the future, pursuant to Rule 2004 or otherwise. In the meantime, you should nonetheless comply with all document requests in Exhibit "B" related to the Debtors, USAIP, and those entities in which USAIP or USACM is the managing or majority member.¹

Thank you in advance for your cooperation in connection with the Subpoena. Please call me if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Eric D. Madden

i need to verify the business purpose of the wire transfers that are coming into 10-90, inc and being transferred by me to mountain vista, inc and then wired back to usaip. wells fargo had asked me the last time i was in. since i have been so busy i have just been making these transfers at your request, without much thought as to the reason why you would like them this way. the last transfer required me to sit with the wells fargo manager and go over the business purpose of the transfers to ensure that nothing inappropriate way taking place. i had a vague notion that the transfers were related to a future real estate investment, but i am not sure.

i have absolute confidence that you are requesting my help for a valid and legitimate business purpose, but i need to get something in writing from you that gives me an explanation.
